

HUMAN

CENTRE LEADING

Human centred design is based on the use of techniques which communicate, interact, empathise and stimulate the people involved, obtaining an understanding of their needs, desires and experiences which often transcends that which the people themselves actually realised.

DESIGN